

Creator God, we have gathered here in your name to move deeper into the great traditions of our faith, revealed to us by your Son, our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Help us to be open and honest with ourselves and each other. Be with us as we focus on hearing what you would have us hear, growing as you would have us grow, and becoming the people you have called us to be.

Guide our speaker, as they share their wisdom and gifts with us.

Guide each of us, as we share our own stories of faith, and discern your will in our lives.

May our time together bring about renewed vision, and inspire us to build a better world. We pray, through Christ, our Lord, Amen.
